WHO HANGS NEXT?

Terror grips the hearts of the Communist bosses. They have realised at last that of all professions in the world theirs has the highest mortality rate. Safer far to be a trapeze artist in a circus or even an old-fashioned kind of brigand.

And every honest man rejoices at it.

Two epidemics ravage Europe this winter. Influenza in the west and political purging in the East. The former is very mild and is dangerous only to children and the aged. The latter, with praiseworthy discrimination, selects for its prey Communist officials and other lackeys of the Russians. It is almost invariably fatal.

Death comes, after long months of agony in prison cells, "interrogation" rooms and law courts, by the constriction of a noose round the neck of the victim, resulting in slow strangulation.

The traitors' hearts are cold with fear of this new plague.

The question all are asking is

WHO WILL BE THE NEXT VICTIM?

The names of Xoxe the Albanian, Rajk the Hungarian and Kostov the Bulgarian are not yet forgotten, and now death comes for the other criminals. Anna Fauker, ex-Foreign Minister of Roumania, and Gomulka, once the leading Communist in Poland, are waiting in their prison cells, being conditioned to "confess" at forthcoming trials.

Slansky, former Secretary-General of the Czech Communist Party and an old stalwart of Stalinism, and Clementis, the former Foreign Minister, have recently been hanged in Prague with nine other Communist leaders. Their friends have committed suicide, are in prison or hourly expect arrest.

The Director of the Secret Police, General Gabor and Director of Planning, Zoltan Vas, are the first victims, but not the last, in the new purge now started in Hungary.

In East Germany Dertinger the Foreign Minister, and Hamann, the Minister of Supplies, are awaiting trial. Their friends and hangers-on are fleeing to West Berlin.

In France, Andre Marty and Tillon, two Communist veteran fighters have been expelled from the Party for "deviationism". They owe their lives to the fact that, despite their own long efforts to betray her, France is still a free and democratic country.

Maurice Thorez, the French Communist Chief, has been three years in Russia undergoing a "cure" by those same Kremlin doctors now charged with killing Zhdanov and the other leaders. Thorez knows now that, like George Dimitrov, his Russian cure will prove a fatal one.

HANGED OR POISONED, THEY ALL COME TO THE SAME END!

In the USSR itself the friends of the fallen leader, Zhdanov, such as Commissar for Planning Voznessensky, are dead or being reserved for propaganda "trials". Stalin has even been able, with his Asiatic cunning, to benefit a second time from Zhdanov's death by accusing the Kremlin doctors whom he had himself ordered to murder him. (Courage, Comrade Thorez!)

This is because they are Jews, and the Red Tsar, like Hitler before him, has now turned to persecuting the Jews - the time-honoured device of tyrants who wish to divert attention from internal weakness, discontent and divisions - the last resort of desperate dictators.

In all these countries the smaller fry are running to and fro in a panic like ants on a burning log. They have no way of guessing whether they have not backed the wrong horse. The odds are no more than evens at the best.

In Czechoslovakia the prisons are filled with the friends, appointees and even the mere nodding acquaintances of Slansky and Clementis - and the protegees of Slansky and Clementis. Minister Ganey of Bulgaria came to grief merely because he had known Anna Pauker.

AND YOU, ENVER HOXHA AND MEHMED SHENI!

Whom have you compromised yourself with? Have you picked Beria or Malenkov? The big fight now for Stalin's succession is between them and one of them will perish. So will all his friends and his toadies.

And you, Spiro Koleka, Petrit Dume, Koco Tashko, Jozef Pashko and all the other lickspittles! Be careful whom you support and whom you betray. In a little while it will be too late. The purge is already spreading to Albania. Do not imagine that General Balluku will be the last.

And you small traitors! Remember that when your protector or patron is purged you will go with him. Choose very carefully - or get out of the whole dirty racket before it is too late!

The question of the moment is

WHO IS NEXT FOR THE GALLows?
